IBEX AND MAD COW THEATRE PRESENT:

THE 2ND ANNUAL
ORLANDO PUPPET FESTIVAL

WELCOME TO THE SECOND ANNUAL ORLANDO PUPPET

WELCOME!

Welcome puppeteers, puppet enthusiasts, and future puppet enthusiasts as we come together for this fantastic five-day celebration of the art of puppetry!

FESTIVAL!

A word from OPF Producers Heather Henson and Jamie Donmoyer

We have taken quite a leap from last year's festivities, tripling the amount of live shows presented! We've also expanded in audience range, adding performances that not only adults will enjoy, but families will love as well!

So what is the Orlando Puppet Festival? For us, it is an opportunity to expand the minds of audiences, to break out of the stereotypical "puppet show". We strive to expose audiences to the versatility of this art form. We hope to inspire people to seek out puppetry beyond simply juvenile entertainment. From drama to comedy, from marionettes to shadows, it is our mission to bring you puppetry that is diverse in it's material as well as in it's method. We are here to prove that puppetry is for everyone...and what better way to do that, than with an Orlando-based Puppet Festival? It started simply enough, one year ago. When a focus on the art of puppetry at the Atlantic Center for the Arts brought L.A. puppeteer Paul Zaloom to the East Coast, we knew we had to find a way for him to perform in Orlando. We hit the streets with a simple plan: one show, one performance. Mad Cow Theatre provided a venue (and an amazing amount of guidance) and that's when the ball started rolling. Suddenly we had a program full of performances, films, a stamp unveiling, an art showcase, Linda Carvel... and so much more!

Now, one year later, we're doing it all over again...bigger and better than ever! With the loss of DMAC, our plethora of films have been replaced with even more live performances sure to inspire and entertain. You'll roar with laughter at Paul Mesner Puppets, be astounded by the beauty of Hobey Ford's Animalia, and lose yourself in Wakka Wakka Productions' The Death of Little Ibsen. Become part of the show in The Potpurri of Puppetry and see emerging artists develop their craft in Puppets From the Edge.

Join us Nov 1-5 at the intimate Mad Cow Theatre in Downtown Orlando for puppetry galore! We kick off the festival with a reception featuring an exclusive screening of Heather Henson's Handmade Puppet Dreams II, a collection of puppet film shorts with the locally produced Harker. Experience The 2nd Annual Orlando Puppet Festival 5 days...18 shows... a world of puppetry at your fingertips!
